1. COMETH THE SUN

BY CURTIS PATTERSON

1977 | COR-TEN STEEL AND CONCRETE

This geometric, abstract sculpture draws heavily on African motifs, and the scale of the piece encourages the viewer to approach and explore from various perspectives. Artist Curtis Patterson often “embeds subtle surprises within his work as a reward for those who are motivated to explore and discover.”

21. AMBITIONS OF A RIDAH

BY C FLUX SING & NOMADIK NATION

An embellished bike rack, combining artistic expression with functionality.

23. TUNKNOWN TITLE!

PRINTS BY TROY LAMARR CHEW II

Sponsored by Facebook and West End Mall/HT Group.

24. WEST END HISTORIC WALK

BY STEVEN WEITZMAN

2013 | TERRAZZO MURAL. CONCRETE AND BRICK PAVERS

Stretching almost the length of two football fields, the art walk tells the story of the West End community.

24. (HER)JOINE

BY ASHLEY D. THOMAS 2020

A tapestry of portraits commemorating seven women who embody the spirit of the West End.

27. MEETING OF ELDERS

BY CHIEF JIMOH BURIAMOH

1997 | GLASS MOSAIC, CEMENT

This colorful mosaic is by one of the most influential artists to emerge from the 1960s experimental workshops in Nigeria known as the Osogbo School of Art, which helped introduce a particular style of modern African art to Western cultures
